How to Read the Calendar:

Typically, apprentices attend one week of training in each color section during the semester - one green week, one yellow week, and one red week for a total of 3 weeks.

Prior failure(s) or incomplete(s) in a class(es) or JATC class credit(s) may result in 2 classes in the same block colored session.

Apprentices should refer to their individualized schedule through the A&J Member Login on the ISAQR website or app for their specific training weeks and dates.

Green Weeks = 1st Session of block classes

Yellow Weeks = 2nd Session of block classes

Red Weeks = 3rd Session of block classes

Gray Weeks = Make-up session for prior block session
